GENEROUS DONATION

A $5,000 grant from The Daniel Jordan Fiddle Foundation will allow the Phoenix Center to conduct a therapeutic horseback riding program, a bowling league, and a recreational swimming program for its adolescent students with autism as part of its overall educational program. The Phoenix Center in Nutley is a not-for-profit private school for students on the autism spectrum and those with other severe developmental disabilities. The Daniel Jordan Fiddle Foundation, located in Ridgewood, awards grants to residential, recreational, vocational, educational and family support programs that benefit adolescents and adults with Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD).
